What is a good storage rack for a home gym?
For example, a custom Sorinex Iron Bear is going to look nicer than a budget black powder-coated storage rack. Similarly, a metal Wall Control pegboard will look much nicer than traditional particleboard pegboards.
Do I Need Home Gym Storage?
Can a storage system improve the look of a home gym?
All storage systems can,and likely will improve the look of your home gym. There are,however,some storage systems with better aesthetics. For example,a custom Sorinex Iron Bear is going to look nicer than a budget black powder-coated storage rack.
What are the different types of home gym storage?
Home gym storage can be distilled into four primary categories: storage systems/mass storage,barbell storage,plate storage,and accessory storage. These different solutions can be found on walls,on floors,or even on gym equipment itself,as is the case with many squat racks.
